

WHAT IF...Hershey

We believe life is too short to drink bad, overpriced wine.

We also believe that wine and food have the potential to make a harmonious marriage.

We will continually strive to offer our customers quality wines both by the glass and by the bottle that complement each item on our menu. More importantly, we will offer our wines at affordable prices.

In establishing our wine program, we have chosen to concentrate first on our wine-by-the-glass selections while gradually building a first-class wine list.

Nevertheless, our guests' suggestions are very important to us. If there is a wine that you personally enjoy that we do not feature, we encourage you to recommend it to us.

While we do not promise to honor every request, we will consider all suggestions.

To that end, while we are in business to profit, we pledge to be affordable.

-Cheers!
